

Figure 2. The Living Planet Index showing an average relative decline of 69% across the studied animal populations, overlain with the various biodiversity conferences, conventions, scientists' warnings and, in particular, the formal Convention on Biological Diversity Conferences of the Parties (COP) and their 14 Biodiversity Conferences. Data source: World Wildlife Fund (WWF) and Zoological Society of London <https://ourworldindata.org/biodiversity>.